

Griffen

A contemporary take on the classic Chesterfield, the Griffen in Harris Tweed features a range of sofas (including curved and modular models) and an armchair, each piece is characterised by a deeply buttoned low back, leather seat cushions and metal castors. A welcome set in the traditional home or a timeless stand-alone accent piece.

SCOTTISH HARRIS TWEED

Griffen is upholstered in Harris Tweed with brown leather seat cushions, buttoning and silhouette arms. Harris Tweed wool is bred, spun and woven exclusively in the Outer Hebrides of Scotland and is renowned for its extensive heritage of practicality and longevity. When teamed with leather, the end result is something truly handsome, exuding class and sophistication, each completed furnishing affixed with a traditional woven label printed with the orb trademark of genuine Harris Tweed.
