

Julian Foye

Sumptuously comfortable and elegant in proportions and detail, the Wells is the perfect design if you desire something modern without being too bold or too conservative.

Wells features attractive buttoned fibre filled arm bolsters which create a softer, modern look with additional support. This continues still further with the model featuring generous fibre filled interiors, however foam upgrades are available at additional cost. Feet: Available in Weathered Oak or American Walnut. Scatter cushions are in main sofa or chair fabric ordered.
