Corso

Inspired by the simplicity and durability of the classic ercol Plank table, the forms of this collection are modernised and dimensions scaled up to fit with modern life. The elliptical edge profiles of tops and leg shapes on both Corso table and Corso bench are tactile and highlight the beauty of the grain in the solid ash timber creating a welcoming place to eat work or relax.

The collection is available in the new lightened or darkened finish along with the standard ash finishes and the bench is available with or without a fixed upholstered pad with options from the ercol collection fabrics.
