Romana Sideboards

ercol

Romana's style is modern, including cabinets and sideboards with a low contemporary outline, but with subtle detailing and soft shapes the range remains understated. Detailing includes shaped legs, whose easy organic lines belie the complexity on manufacture. The shaped edge to the top panels echoes the softness of ercol's vintage mid-century designs, but cut into the carcass it gives a streamlined feel to the silhouette. A high level of craftsmanship is used in creating the organic shapes in the range. Complex construction is further evidenced in flush, sculpted curves with across joints and in the close fit of the curved tops into the recessed tops of the cabinet carcasses.

Clear Matt Finish.
